

Seven Counties Services Crisis Number Directory

Seven Counties Services is a Community Mental Health Center that offers a full range of mental and behavioral health services, substance abuse treatment, and intellectual and developmental disabilities services in a seven-county region in Kentucky. The following numbers are available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year if you or someone you know is in crisis and needs urgent help:

Adult Crisis Line: (502) 589-4313

The journey for everyone is different and our passion is to be with you every step of the way! If you or someone you know is in crisis and needs urgent help, our adult crisis line is available any time of day.

Child Crisis Line: (502) 589-8070

Understanding the complexities of mental illness is challenging and heart-wrenching, especially when it affects a child you love. If your child is in crisis and needs help, our compassionate team of professionals are here to help.

Addiction Recovery Hotline: (502) 583-3951

Addiction recovery is a lifelong progress. Our team of support and resources are available to help achieve lasting recovery and improve overall quality of life for anyone who needs us.

Developmental Disability Crisis Line: (502) 459-5292

We're here to support you or a loved one, whether in childhood or adulthood, lead a more independent and fulfilling life. The crisis line is available to anyone in an immediate crisis, 24/7. Our caring and compassionate staff are ready to help.

Suicide And Crisis Lifeline: 988

Dial or text 988 if you or someone you know is having thoughts of suicide or experiencing a mental health crisis and get connected to a trained crisis counselor who will listen empathetically and without judgment. Whether in current crisis, or at risk of being in crisis, the 988 Lifeline is also a preventative service. Once connected, a crisis counselor will work to ensure you feel safe and help identify options and information about mental health services in your area.

Seven Counties Services